

STUDY GUIDE

Quiz 3 - PHIL - April 5

Make sure you look over John Mill's excerpt we read on Happiness as an Aim.

You need to be familiar with Mortimer Adler's reply to Mill where he suggests an alternative.

You should look over Frankfurt's article on Freedom of the Will – and look over the handout of my notes where we discussed free will.

You need to be able to offer an argument against the concept of free will AND be able to name the philosophy that does this – it has been discussed at least twice in class.

Look over our readings/notes on Jean-Paul Sartre and his famous statement about "essence and existence."

Be able to give the historical context for Sartre's existentialism?

Be able to tell me what "reflected" and "unreflected" consciousness is and Sartre's most famous writing where he discusses this.

Who wrote The Gulag Archipelago?
What was the Gulag?

Be able to discuss
"The Problem of Evil?"